“Remember Our Heroes” is the theme of this year’s Corbett Fourth of July Parade and Fun Festival. This year Corbett alumni artist and resident Kevin Bates has helped set a very appropriate patriotic tone for this extra special holiday weekend with his poster image featuring Jeff Lucas** and area veterans. This fourth of July will mark the start of the final steps to the completion of the Jeff Lucas Memorial Stadium in Corbett with a ceremonial ground breaking before the start of the music and fireworks. There will also be a special fly over and the release of 50 white birds – courtesy of Jim Gee to honor our men & women who have served and sacrificed.

Jeff Lucas

After graduating from Corbett High School in 1989, Jeff Lucas joined the Navy and ultimately achieved his lifelong dream to become a Navy SEAL. Jeff reached the pinnacle of success in 2004 when he was named Navy SEAL of the year - Jeffrey was truly the best-of-the-best! On June 28, 2005 Jeff Lucas boarded a helicopter bound to assist his teammates during a heavy fire fight in the Afghan mountains.

As the helicopter flew into the sky and into the mountains in eastern Afghanistan, Jeffrey ascended into the heavens.

Jeff was laid to rest in Arlington National Cemetery on October 21, 2005.
He will never be forgotten!
